Shingles are Active

We thought everybody knew that shingles are supposed to go on top of the house, but this fellow is putting one on the bottom. Dad sent the kid to our yard with an order for shingles but he went to the wrong place—they sent out the wrong kind of shingles—Dad's sore and the kid's getting sorer every minute. Next time he'll look for this name:

Skovgaard Pleased Audience

Axel Skovgaard, Danish violinist, gave Belding a real musical treat in his concert at the Church of Christ, on Friday, March 17th. His program contained a wide variety of selections well chosen. He was very ably assisted by Mrs. Skovgaard who proved herself a musician of no small talent. In fact, she is the finest pianist who ever appeared in Belding. Mr. Skovgaard's rendition of "Old Folks At Home", "Annie Laurie" and "Home, Sweet Home" were distinctly appealing and will be long remembered. The third and last entertainment to be given under the management of the High school is the one by Herbert Leon Cope, humorist, who appears here in the Church of Christ on Thursday, April 6. This entertainment promises to be very full of enjoyment and every person in the city should avail themselves of the opportunity to support a splendid evening's entertainment such as this.

To Do a Thing Well.

No man can do anything well who does not esteem his work to be of importance. My work may be of none, but I must not think it of none, or I shall not do it with dignity.—Emerson's Essay on Nature.

Jud Tunkles.

Jud Tunkles says he can't see any advantage, kind heart or no kind heart, in having a rough exterior. Nobody wants to make a pet of a hedge hog.

Fish in Philippine Waters.

The Philippine waters abound in food fishes, but fishing is done only in shallow waters, and the catch is not adequate for the demands of the islanders. Among the fish available are anchovies, hering, pompanos, sea bass, mullets, milkfish, barracudas, porpoises, grunts, parrot fish and soldier fish.

The Purpose.

Proportion is almost impossible to human beings. There is no one who does not exaggerate. In conversation men are encumbered with personality and talk too much. In modern sculpture, picture and poetry, the beauty is misallied; the artist works here and there and at all points, adding and adding, instead of unfolding the unit of his thought. Beautiful details we must have, or no artist; but they must be means and never ends. The eye must not lose sight for a moment of the purpose.—Emerson.

Testing Child's Musical Ability.

Musical ability in a child can be well judged by testing five faculties: The sense of pitch, which is the ability to discriminate between higher and lower tones; the sense of time or rhythm; the sense of consonance, which is the ability to tell what is more pleasing and what is less pleasing; the sense of intensity; and musical memory, or the ability to remember a number of tones from hearing them once. Those qualifications are probably in large measure inherited, for very young children sometimes have them.—Youth's Companion.

See Larry Semon in "The Saw Mill" at the Empress, Saturday and Sunday.

Stop the Ache.

Zone-therapy is a system of relieving pain by applying pressure to the nerves—like shutting off the water or gas by turning a valve. For instance, to stop toothache, grasp the gums over the aching tooth, between thumb and forefinger. Press tightly! That is worth remembering. When you have toothache, everything else in the world fades into unimportance.

A straw vote of civilians and World war veterans held by a St. Paul, Minn., newspaper, gave count of 312 to 1 in favor of adjusted compensation legislation. A count of 2,518 ex-service men's ballots showed three out of every four had voted for a general bonus to all ex-service men.

National women's organizations and the American Legion are co-operating to raise a fund of $2,000,000 to establish a retreat for disabled service men at Tupper Lake, N. Y.

In Washington, D. C., at the request of a federal "adjustment board", James S. Daugherty, veteran of Pershing's bodyguard in Mexico and wounded during the world war at Cantigny, died in a hotel room. Identification was established by the aluminum tag he wore around his neck.

In order that no ex-soldier who served during the world war will have to sleep in Potter's field, the Wisconsin American Legion has purchased a cemetery plot of its own at Racine.

Ex-service men are being sought by the American Legion of Seattle, Wash., to take over farms on the Yakima Indian reservation, renewal of leases of which has been refused former Japanese tenants by the state. Preference is being given disabled and maimed soldiers.

"Spring clean-up days" are being observed throughout the country as a part of the American Legion's campaign to give jobs to all unemployed ex-service men. "Have ex-soldier do it" has brought out old time kitchen police whose knowledge of barrack cleaning hasn't been forgotten.

That race feeling is a thing apart with them is shown by the action of the several San Francisco, Cal., American Legion posts in turning out almost en masse for the funeral of Col. Charles Young, one of the few Negroes to graduate from West Point.

Producing documents which showed him to be an honorably discharged German soldier and holder of the Iron Cross, an applicant for membership in the American Legion at Mexico City, Mexico, said he thought the organization took in all soldiers regardless of where they ever fought.

Official American Legion grave markers have been cut in price. They may now be had from Legion headquarters for $1.30.

A Chicago man was given six months in jail following his exposure by the American Legion as a fake soldier. A Croix de Guerre, marksmanship medal and overseas service chevrons on his uniform had been bought in a pawn shop, he said.

Forty-three per cent of Ohio's ex-service men are putting their state bonus money in the bank, a poll of American Legion members at Canton shows.

Battlefield soldiers turned fire fighters at Poelton, Tenn., and prevented a $75,000 fire loss. An American Legion post formed a bucket brigade and kept the flames in check until the regular apparatus arrived.
